

CFG COMMUNITY BANK OPENS FULL-SERVICE BRANCH IN FELL'S POINT

Retail and commercial bank relocates to Fells Point to serve local residents and businesses

BALTIMORE, Md. (September 24, 2012) — CFG Community Bank is pleased to announce it is opening a new set of doors by relocating to Baltimore's historic Fell's Point neighborhood. Conveniently located at 1615 Thames Street just a block away from the water, the new full-service branch is scheduled to open on October 9th, 2012 and will serve retail and commercial customers throughout Baltimore.

The Fell's Point branch will be headed by Curtis Pope who will serve as manager. Michael McClung, Vice President and Branch Administrator, will also oversee the Fell's Point location.

"CFG Community Bank is thrilled to be celebrating the opening of our relocated branch in the heart of Fell's Point," said Pope. "With our new location, we are perfectly positioned to provide residents and local business owners with the banking services they need from our convenient, accessible location."

Headquartered in Baltimore, CFG Community Bank is a locally owned, full-service commercial bank devoted to meeting the needs of small and middle-market businesses, professionals and executives. The bank prides itself on being a neighborhood bank that offers all the modern-day conveniences of big banks with a stronger emphasis on customer service.

Among its many amenities the new Fell's Point branch offers 24/7 banking with its advanced imaging ATM, no fee debit cards and online banking, free checking and a free coin counter. CFG Community Bank's Fell's Point branch will be open Monday-Thursday from 9 am to 5 pm, Friday from 9 am to 6 pm, and Saturday from 9 am to 12 pm.

"The new location is ideally situated in the center of Fell's Point and provides the branch with an exciting opportunity to help meet the everyday banking needs of the individuals, families and small businesses of Fell's Point." said Gary Rever, president of CFG Community Bank.

The Fell's Point branch will be open for public use on October 9th, but will hold a grand opening event for area residents and surrounding businesses on Wednesday, October 17th from 12 p.m. to 2 p.m. Free and open to the public, the event will feature complimentary Stuggy's hamburgers and hotdogs. In celebration of its grand opening in Fell's Point, CFG Community Bank is offering a special introductory rate for new Maximum Money Market accounts.

Attendees are encouraged to bring their spare change to the event to gain access to CFG Community Bank's Coin Pond. The bank's free coin counter turns loose change into dollars, and customers who use the machine during the event have the opportunity to donate a portion of that money to Fell's Point Main Street. For new customers who open an account through November, the bank will match your Coin Pond deposit by 10% (up to $10,) or you can elect to help match our recent donation of $5,000 to Fell's Point Main Street when depositing your change.

In addition to the new Fell's Point branch, CFG Community Bank has a branch in Lutherville-Timonium and another in Annapolis. Customers have access to more than 1500 no-fee ATM locations across the region.

###