Mark Keidel joins CFG Community Bank as CEO

BALTIMORE, MD (July 14, 2014) – CFG Community Bank today announced that Mark A. Keidel has joined the bank as CEO. Keidel will assume responsibility for the day to day operations of the three branch bank headquartered in Baltimore County, as well as assist with the efforts to complete its pending acquisition by MVB Bank, Inc. (a subsidiary of MVB Financial Corp., OTCQB: MVBF).

The sale of CFG Community Bank to MVB Bank was announced in October 2013. It will signify MVB's entry into Maryland. Completion of the transaction is pending regulatory approvals and other customary closing conditions.

Keidel replaces Gary Rever, who resigned from the bank earlier this month.

"We wish Gary well and are pleased to have Mark on board to assist with the transition," said Jack Dwyer, Chairman of the Board. "He brings a wealth of experience to the process."

Prior to joining CFG Community Bank, Keidel served as COO and CFO for First Mariner Bank from 2000 until his most recent appointment to Interim CEO in December 2011. He has over 30 years of banking experience. Prior to his tenure at First Mariner, Keidel was the CFO of both Carroll County Bank and Mason-Dixon Bancshares, Inc., which was acquired by BB&T Corporation in 1999.
